Please be aware that all comments, whether received electronically or in hard copy, will be treated exactly the same. As this is a planning policy document, you need to be aware that your comments cannot be made confidential. They will be publicly accessible and other parties will have the right to read them. However, while your name and response will be publicly available for others to read, your address details will not be published either electronically or in a report. We will not publish any comments until after the public consultation period has closed on 29th January 2009.

Please note that offensive, racist, discriminatory and other statements that are not relevant will not be formally considered. Offensive statements lower a person's reputation personally or within their trade, profession or business. Racist statements are those that discriminate against individuals on racial grounds including their race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origins. As Gypsies and Travellers are a racial group, comments that include such statements will not be accepted and will be rejected.
